

HATiP

HIV & AIDS Treatment in Practice

Issue 97 | 12 December 2007

In this issue:

Diagnosis and treatment of CMV retinitis in resource-limited settings achievable and a must, says MSF; page 2

Starting antiretroviral therapy early at higher CD4 cell counts improves short term treatment outcomes in resource-poor countries; page 2

Diagnosis and treatment of CMV retinitis in resource-limited settings achievable and a must, says MSF

Starting antiretroviral therapy early at higher CD4 cell counts improves short term treatment outcomes in resource-poor countries

about HATiP

A regular electronic newsletter for health care workers and community-based organisations on HIV treatment in resource-limited settings.

The newsletter is edited by Theo Smart (Cape Town) and Keith Alcorn, NAM's Senior Editor (London).

For further information please visit the HATIP section of aidsmap.com